MOTTO: "To strive, to seek, to find, but not to yield."

DEDICATION

MR. JOHN L. DUPREE

No attempt to review the progress of Cannon High School would be complete without an effort to pay tribute to JOHN L. DUPREE. Imbued with an innate sense of justice and impartiality, he became to us a genial companion, the epitome of what we would want our lives to be. Because of his intangible spirit of friendliness, his willingness to serve, and his untiring efforts in the expansion of the school, we, the senior class of the J. W. Cannon High School, with deepest appreciation and gratitude do hereby dedicate this 1947 CANNON REPORT.

HISTORY OF SENIOR CLASS '47

In the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and forty-three, three hundred twenty-nine tired and bewildered students, who had only three months before finished eight long years of elementary school, entered the doors of a higher and more advanced institution of learning. This institution was called J. W. Cannon High School. We students, the first in the city of Kannapolis to have completed eight years of elementary school instead of the original seven, little realized that we could learn to love a school so much.

When registration, room assignments, and other adjustments were made, we became full fledged freshmen, on the lowest rung on the ladder of high school. We felt lost and thought everything we did was wrong, but we were soon comforted by our teachers and welcomed by the upper-classmen. Soon we elected our class officers, who were to guide and direct us through the year. As officers we elected, Kenneth Dayvault, president; James Carroll, vice-president; Marietta Simms, secretary and treasurer. With these leaders to guide us, that first year of high school went along much better than we expected. Our studies were hard, but there was plenty of recreation to go along with our lessons. There were football games, basketball games, plays, and especially the well-liked Student Government dances.

Before we knew it, a whole year had passed, summer vacation was over, and we were back in high school once more. We were no longer freshmen, but sophomores. How good this word sounded; it was music in our ears. As sophomores we again elected our staff of officers. They were: president, Max Koontz; vice-president, Ray Frye; secretary, Phyllis Tucker; and treasurer, Hazel Boggs. This, our second year of high school, went along even smoother than the first. We seemed to enjoy our extra-curricular activities more, and even our studies seemed more enjoyable. We now began to sense our love for the school that, in only two more years was to be our Alma Mater.

After completing two years of required work, we could now call ourselves Juniors. This, our Junior year, was to be a most promising and enlightening one. As upper-classmen, we enjoyed privileges that were unknown to us before. Our Junior class play, "Janie," directed by Miss Amy Harrington, made a big hit with everyone. Our annual Junior-Senior prom, honoring the seniors, was a most joyous festivity, enjoyed by all attending. We were also privileged to attend the Senior "Barn-warming" held in late spring. Our Junior year was guided by our class officers who were: Lowell Lovin, president; Bill Messer, vice-president; Anna Carter, secretary; and Jimmy Fisher, treasurer. This was our third year and our best one so far but little did we realize what was yet in store for us.

We finally reached it: our senior year. We had reached the top rung of the ladder. But we were just a little more than ordinary seniors. We were the first class of Cannon High School to have been required to complete twelve years of school before graduating. As all seniors though, we retained our senior dignity and pride. Our officers were: president, James Roberts; vice-president, Earl Clayton; secretary, Anna Carter; and treasurer, George Daniels. This year we had work to do. We elected our superlatives, chose as our colors, blue and white, and the gardenia as our flower. We had to get everything just perfect for graduation. Aside from hard work though, we had our entertainment. There was the Senior-Junior dance, the Senior class play, Senior day, on which day the seniors are lord and ruler over the under-classmen, and in the spring there was the Junior-Senior prom. Last but not most important of all festivities was commencement. In the first days of June, 1947, we became graduates of J. W. Cannon High School.

Now graduation is over and we have bid a fond farewell to all our teachers, friends, and especially our school. We have reached the top rung of the ladder of high school, but we have just begun to climb "the ladder of life," and as we climb this ladder, we will never forget Cannon High. We will always love her, not as a building, but as the maker of four of the most enjoyable years of our lives.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1947, of J. W. Cannon High School, knowing that we are entering a world of uncertainty, do hereby deem it necessary to present at this time our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I

To the various classes, we will the following:

To the Juniors, our coveted front seats in the auditorium and our dignity; to the Sophomores, our ability to present good plays and our senior expenses; and to the Freshmen, our intelligence.

ARTICLE II

To the faculty, we just leave, knowing that pleases them most.

ARTICLE III

I, Mary Ruth Aldridge, do hereby will and bequeath my good times at Cannon High to my sister, Peggy, and to Joan Shelf.

I, Colleen Davis Alexander, do will and bequeath my ability to play "Grandma," the string bass, to my brother, Bobby, and my monitor post in the north tower to any girl who thinks she can endure it during the winter months.

I, John Allen, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to pass chemistry to Gladess Hudspeth, because she really needs it, and my ability to never lose books to Joe Nimer.

I, Boyce Allman, leave my parking place next to the building to Billie Morris, considering that she has her new convertible by next year.

I, Grace Allman, will my love for a football player to anyone who is lucky enough to get one.

I, Lois Baker, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to be quiet in class to anyone who needs it most.

I, Frank Ballard, gladly leave my parking place in the horseshoe to Al McDonald for his new "sedan."

I, Imogene Barker, will my ability to graduate to Ronald Kind, and my ability to get by without studying to Edna Lee Gullledge.

I, Billy Barnhardt, do hereby will and bequeath my job as circulation manager of the CANNON REPORT to Paul Fritts, and my Mixed Chorus robe to my sister, Betty.

I, Bobby Barnhardt, hereby will and bequeath my ability in music to Joe Nimer, knowing that he has the making of another Harry James.

I, Iris Barnhardt, do hereby will and bequeath my love for Rockwell boys to my sister, Clarice.

I, Jacob Barnhardt, leave my ability to lose all my football bets to anyone who can afford it.

I, Harold Barringer, give my money to Boyce Jean Grayson for her "Sanitary" bills, and the scar on my lip to Harriet Hartis.

I, Ellen Bassinger, bequeath all my good times to my other half, Faye Howard, and all my nicknames (especially "Muscles") to Billy Max Hargett.

I, Christine Bassett, do hereby will and bequeath my wonderful times at Cannon High School to my sister, Willine Bassett, and to George Armstrong.

I, Hansel "Hank" Beam, do leave my position as a D. O. student to Winton Lowe, knowing that he will need money to go skating.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Betty Lou Belcher, leave my typing position in the library to Betsy Bracewell.

I, Frances Bell, give my luck to have shorthand under Miss Bolick to any fortunate student.

I, Ernestine Bennett, do will my nonperoxidized blonde hair to anyone who desires it, and my good times to my sister, Mildred, who is a rising Freshman.

I, Doris Black, bequeath my good times in high school to Clyde Moose, and my ability to make A's in Spanish II to my sister, Helen.

I, Nancy Blackburn, do will my blonde hair to Virginia Mann, knowing how she desires to be a "blonde," and my love for Glee Club to my brother, Gerald.

I, Hazel Boggs, do hereby will and bequeath my title as the most co-operative girl in the Senior Class to any Junior girl who can attain that title either one way or the other.

I, Katheryn Bostian, will my ways to get out of study hall to anyone who has nerve to try it.

I, Ruth Bowers, will my love for school to Dot Bowers, hoping she will have as much fun her senior year as I.

I, Jimmy Brown, do bequeath my ability to play second clarinet for four years to Bobbye Steele, and my love for Latin to "Don" Efird.

I, Marie Bumgarner, gladly give my place at the end of the cafeteria line to any slow person, and my love for typing to my brother, L. J., who is a rising senior.

I, Romaine Brown, leave my place in Girls' Glee Club, to anyone who likes it as much as I.

I, Gwen Callicutt, do hereby will and bequeath my big mouth to my little sister, Barbara.

I, Norman Campbell, leave my seat in Miss Gray's second period English class to Glenn Richardson.

I, Franklin Cannon, will my ability to always get by to Grover Edmiston, and my love for dancing to Ruby Poteat.

I, Peggy Cannon, do hereby will and bequeath my position on the debating team and my ability to stay on good terms with Miss Barineau at the same time to Dick Sweeney, knowing that he needs the latter most.

I, Anna Carter, do hereby will my job as Chief Typist to Mary Christy, hoping that Jay Wise won't "bless her out" for every mistake she makes on the CANNON REPORT material.

I, Joe Carter, leave my large parking place in the horseshoe to Benny Lee, seeing that he cannot park in a small one.

I, Charles Chambers, do hereby will and bequeath my ability not to get along with a certain girl to someone who is lucky enough to get along with her.

I, Earl Childers, will my ability (?) to work algebra to Lorna Castor and Jean Evans, and my love for "wimmin" and my position on the basketball team to Excell Grass.

I, Hazel Childers, leave my position in Glee Club and Sextette to anyone who can always put it first, and my ability to graduate to Betty Allen and "Bo" Teal.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Doris Clark, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get along with Jimmie to Betty Allen, hoping that she and her boyfriend will get along. (She knows what I mean.)

I, Bill Coggins, will my place in the Monogram Club to Homer Poole, and my place on the football bench to Robert Rogers.

I, Carolyn Compton, do hereby will and bequeath my good times at Cannon High to Joyce Allman and Buddy Lipe.

I, Eddie Ray Cook, do hereby will and bequeath my diplomatic manner to Sam Scott and my height to Charles Gillon.

I, Colleen Cooke, bequeath my place in the Sextette to Jamie Austin, my monitor post to Betty Coley, and my love for Miss Bolick to anyone lucky enough to have her for Shorthand II.

I, Margaret Cooke, do hereby will and bequeath my good times in high school and my ability to get along with teachers to Helen Black.

I, Bill Crepps, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to sleep in Miss Gray's English class and get by with it to anyone who has the initiative to accomplish such a dangerous feat.

I, Laura Cruse, will my love for sailors to my little sister, "Shorty."

I, Gene Currie, do will and bequeath my position as "dealer" in "blackjack" on the basketball trips to "Tooney" Armstrong.

I, George Daniels, hereby will my love for Cannon High School and music to the rising Freshman band members, my ability to sight read band music to Gene Davis, and my north tower monitor post to anyone unlucky enough to get it.

I, Rachel Dayvault, do hereby will and bequeath my admiration for Oscar Levant, a fellow "pianist," to Greta Cashion and Betty Chloe McCombs.

I, Betty Deal, will my position as a drum majorette to Bobbye Steele and my monitor post to Mickey Purser.

I, Forrest Dixon, will my bad grades to anyone crazy enough to want them.

I, Doris Dwyer, do hereby will and bequeath my position as business manager of the CANNON REPORT to Allie Belle Biles, knowing that she can do a wonderful job of it, and to my sister, Theresa, I will all my good times in high school.

I, Donald Efird, do hereby will and bequeath all my troubles with my T-model to Benny Lee and my ability to paint in Concord the name of my beloved school to Jay Wise.

I, Hazel Efird, will my good times in high school to my sister, Vivian, and my ability to graduate to my brother, S. D.

I, Connie Faulkner, do hereby will my curls on a rainy day to Helen Fowler, knowing she could use some any day.

I, Doris Fisher, leave my stool in sheet metal to Jean McManus, hoping she gets one more often than I.

I, Jimmy Fisher, do bequeath my monitor post in the south tower to anyone who is not allergic to cold weather, and my nickname, "Fish," to my brother, Larry.

I, Louise Gales, will my good times while in the Senior Class to my sister, Mary, and my ability to graduate to my youngest sister, Jerry.

I, Jerry Gardner, will my good times at Cannon High School to my sister, Jimmie.

I, David Grey Glass, do hereby will and bequeath my success with women to Ronald Alexander, and my right tackle position to any bonehead who doesn't have brains to stay out of it.

I, Sybil Goble, do hereby will and bequeath my love for the "country" to Nellie Sue Safrit, and my ability to go to school twelve years to my brother, Kermit, who is a rising Freshman.

I, Lewis Goodman, do hereby will my ability to get along with teachers to Billie Kerley, hoping she has enough sense not to take geography.

I, Mary Lois Goodnight, will my height to the short girls who need it, and my red hair to anyone who desires it.

I, Harold Gray, will my good times to my younger brother, Dan, who is a rising Freshman, and hope it doesn't take him four years to complete two years of algebra.

I, Milford Hall, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to study aviation in school, and my being bashful around the girls to Buddy Lipe and Billy Max Hargett.

I, Claude W. Hamilton, do leave my seat in the senior section of the auditorium to Glenn Overcash.

I, Eleanor Hammonds, give my monitor post to Howard Graham and my love for Miss Bolick to Martha Barnhardt, hoping she will have her for shorthand.

I, James Hampton, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to start back to school, after being out since 1942, to my brother, Herbert, who is now doing the same thing I did when I was out of school, serving in the Marines.

I, Kathleen Hardin, leave my chapel seat to Marie Nichols, a rising senior, and my love for shorthand to Doris, my sister.

I, Peggy Harmon, do will my position as first cello player in the orchestra to Betty Mauldin, a rising sophomore.

I, Wesley Harrell, will my good looks and my experience in getting along with women to my brother, Bill Harrell, because you can see by his unfortunate experience with Dot Byrd that he is lacking in both.

I, John W. Hilton, hereby will my technique of pinching "little girls" to "Shorty" Upright. I hope he has as much luck as I did.

I, Paul Hobbs, do will and bequeath my love and affection for Miss Bolick, who with patience and fortitude has made my Senior year a lovable and successful year, to Harold Whitten, knowing he will make the best of it.

I, Bobby Holler, leave my ability to make A's in Spanish II without studying to any dumb and ambitious Junior who wishes to succeed.

I, Evelyn Foster Honeycutt, do will my ability to marry, but still finish school, to Wanda Grissom, who I think will need it.

I, Joyce Honeycutt, do will and bequeath my love for home economics to my sister, Janice, knowing how she detests work, and my ability to finish high school in three years to Mary Anne Riggs.

I, Curtis Hoyle, do hereby will my ability to pick winning football teams to E. H. Williford and Jay Wise.

I, Ernest Huffman, do bequeath my ability to get along with teachers to Mickey Irby, who seems to need it.

I, Mary Hughes, do hereby will and bequeath my admiration for good books to Bobbye Steele and Nina Ruth Glass.

I, Bernell Jolly, do hereby will and bequeath all my good times at Cannon High to my sister, Mary, a rising sophomore.

I, Bobby Jones, do will my position as co-captain of the football team to anyone who is lucky enough to be elected, and I will my ability to get along with teachers and pupils to my cousin, Gwynne Keever.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Margaret Jones, do leave to Catherine Bradley my position in the office first period, hoping that she will have as much fun as I.

I, Betty Julian, do hereby will and bequeath the title of the most unconventional girl to "Pud" Oates, knowing that she is more capable of holding it than I, and my "love" to Amos Abernathy and Billie Bass.

I, Mickey Kincaid, do leave my place in the Monogram Club and my position on the basketball team to E. H. "Red" Williford.

I, Doris Jean Knowles, do hereby will and bequeath my red hair and temper to anyone—just so I get rid of 'em.

I, Max Koontz, do hereby will my monitor's post in the south tower to anyone with a suit of armor for protection and warmth, my ability to lose debates to Sam Scott, and my love for school politics and Cannon High to my kid brother, Mekie.

I, Hazel Lambert, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get to school on time at lunch to anyone who can run fast.

I, Peggie Rose Lambert, do hereby will and bequeath my love for "grandpa bass" to Pat Glass, because she snares it, and my position as most dignified girl to any rising Senior who appears as such.

I, Ray Lapis, do will and bequeath my intelligence to anyone who is stupid enough to have it, and my "big" mouth to any sucker crazy enough to take it.

I, Virgie Leebrick, do will my ability to attend school every day to Tommy Leebrick, and my ability to play basketball to "Bets" Shepherd.

I, C. G. Lefler, do will and bequeath my ability to never have detention hall to Don Whitley.

I, Curtis Lentz, will my ability to lay out of school to Marie Nichols.

I, Jane Ann Lentz, do will and bequeath my curly hair on rainy days to Hughlene Freeze, knowing hers will be curly anyway. To Loma Freeze, a rising senior, I leave my seat in chapel.

I, Mary Lewis, hereby will and bequeath my good times at Cannon High to all the Freshmen for the year 1947-1948.

I, Cleo Lloyd, will and bequeath my love for beautiful women and teachers to my brother, Ralph, who is fast becoming a regular "Romeo," and my ability to be a cheerleader to Nathaniel Gilliam, who has the mouth for it.

I, Nathlee Long, do will my place in Quill and Scroll and my position as fashion editor of the CANNON REPORT to Naomi Dillinger, and my ability to go steady for three years to my cousin, Betty Smith.

I, Ailene Lowder, do leave my seat in typing to Sylvia Lowder and Barbara Turner, hoping that they will make better use of it than I did.

I, Iva Dell Lowder, do give my ability to hitch a man before graduating to Hughlene Freeze, knowing she is on the look-out for one.

I, Adell Marshall, do hereby will and bequeath my red glasses and bangs to anyone that is crazy enough to want them.

I, Charles Augustus McCombs, leave my third nickname, "Gussie," to Charles Augustus Suther.

I, Earl McCombs, do hereby will and bequeath my love for history to my sister, Jacqueline, who is a rising Freshman.

I, Luther R. McCombs, do hereby will and bequeath my opportunity to loaf during my Senior year to Sam Scott, my love for debating to Dick Sweeney, my political inclinations to a Sophomore worthy of them, my baritone to a qualifying Freshman musically inclined, and my good fortune in finding "the girl" while still in high school to Jay Wise.

I, Bill Messer, do hereby will my ability to graduate to Jimmy Moser, who, I doubt, will ever make it, and my ability to get along with Miss Huntley to Nat Gilliam.

I, Mildred Miller, will and bequeath all my good times at Cannon High to my sister, Fay, hoping she will enjoy high school as much as I have.

I, Mary Frances Moore, will my ability to pitch "horseshoes" to Marshall Moss, and my love for "cutting carrots" to Inez Watts, since she likes it so well.

I, Annelle Morris, will my little waist line to Mickey Power, knowing she needs one, and to Allie Vann Wilson, I leave my ability to keep my mouth shut.

I, Orval Murray, do hereby will and bequeath my bass horn to Alvin Simmons, hoping that he can carry it to the football games and back.

I, Inez Nichols, leave my seat in chapel to Norma Linn, if she can find it!

I, J. L. Norris, do hereby will and bequeath my love for Cannon High School, in general, and the girls in particular, to any deserving young boy, hoping he enjoys his stay in this institution as much as I.

I, Ottis Oliver, will my ability to go steady with one girl to Howard Graham.

I, Marie Orfield, will my ability to pass two years of shorthand to my sister, Nancy, and my love for bookkeeping to Billie Morris.

I, Joe Overcash, leave my parking place in the horseshoe to any person lucky enough to own a Ford.

I, Helen Patterson, do hereby will and bequeath my love for Bible to anyone who needs it.

I, Mary Peebles, will my ability to pass all my subjects to my sisters, Jean and Billie.

I, Marie Pennell, will my ruler to some person in fourth period art class who borrowed it, and thought the name on it was theirs.

I, Charles Pethel, give my old greasy coveralls to Excell Grass, hoping he will get a kick out of reviving old, tired aching engines, and also to him I leave my ability to get along with women. "I love 'em."

I, Lois Petrea, leave my position in the cafeteria to anyone wishing to take it.

I, Doris Phillips, will my ability to finish high school to my brother, Donald.

I, Doris Ann Phillips, hereby will and bequeath my ability to blush in art class to Doris Overcash.

I, Helen Phillips, do will my bangs to Mickey Powers, and my delicate appetite to Jackie Cornelius.

I, Max Riddle, do hereby will and bequeath my good looking hair to Nat Gilliam and Grover Edmiston.

I, "Bill" Riggs, will my ability to play football to Jim Propst, and my ability to get along with women to Harold Whitten.

I, "Bob" Roberts, do hereby will and bequeath my position as president of the football bench to Charles Rabb.

I, Frances Roberts, do will my ability to learn Spanish to my sister, Virginia.

I, Dorothy Rodden, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to go with one boy at a time to Arbutus Morton, because it's time she was learning that "one boy at a time is enough."

I, H. L. Rollins, Jr., will my ability to get along with teachers and to sit through the full length of study hall to Luther Corriher.

I, Grace Rufty, will and bequeath my good times at Cannon High to Betty Barnhardt and Joyce Campbell, also my ability to graduate to my brother, Frank.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Betty Joan Safrit, do will my wonderful times at K. H. S. to the pupils, my geometry book to Rebecca Braswell, and my kerchief that I use on rainy days to Perline Funderburk.

I, Fred Safrit, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to attend high school for four years and never have detention hall to Ray Fryer.

I, Ida Marie Scott, do hereby bequeath sociology under Mr. McCarn to anyone lucky enough to have him.

I, Margaret Sechler, bequeath my ability (?) to date a freshman my senior year to my sister, Mary Belle.

I, Blondell Self, will my ability to go "steady" with one boy my senior year to Jean McManus, hoping she won't try this "every night dating" as I did and my good times in the blue Buick to the "gang."

I, Mae Frances Shaver, will my ability to play basketball to my sister Evelyn, and the memories of four of the happiest years of my life to my brother, Thomas.

I, Howard Sherrill, do will my ability to chew chewing gum in class and get away with it to Leonard Winecoff.

I, Bobby Shinn, bequeath my ability to graduate in three years to any sucker who wants to try it, and my ability to become a senior to my brother, Hartsell.

I, Norma Shoaf, do will and bequeath to Bernice Sloop my ability to make A's in Latin.

I, James Shuping, do hereby will and bequeath my artistic criminal instinct to Doris Mae Overcash.

I, Bill Sides, leave my seat in Glee Club to C. D. Sides, my love for hunting to Parks Goodnight, and my love for football to Amos Abernathy.

I, Herman Sides, do hereby will my ability to get along with teachers to anyone who thinks he can do so.

I, Marietta Sims, leave my glee club robe to anyone small enough to wear it and my nicknames (referring to my height) to Virginia Mann and Bobbye Steele, who also forgot to grow after reaching five feet.

I, Margaret Sisk, will my ability to finish high school in three years without much work to my sister, Mildred.

I, W. M. Slawson, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to play football without getting hurt to Charles Rabb.

I, Margaret Sloop, will my ability to graduate from high school to my brother, Harold, knowing that he needs it.

I, Evelyn Smith, leave my position as assistant business manager of the CANNON REPORT to any Junior willing to work for it and my good times to Billie Menscer.

I, Marie Smith, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to struggle through twelve grades of school to Marie Nichols.

I, Mildred Stewart, do will my ability to skip classes all through high school and not get caught until my senior year to my sister, Evelyn, hoping she is slicker than I.

I, "Bill" Stirewalt, will my ability to go to school and work eight hours in the mill to anyone crazy enough to try it.

I, Charles Stirewalt, will my seat in band to a rising freshman, hoping that he can play better than I.

I, Tommy Suther, leave my monitor post to anyone with Eskimo blood and my football uniform to anyone who will patch it.

I, Mary Teal, leave my front seat in the auditorium to Betty Allen, a rising senior.

I, Lorraine Templeton, from Cannon High, just leave.

I, Doris Jean Thomas, do will and bequeath my love for K. H. S. to Geraldine Morris and Patsy Ruth Gibson.

I, Wallace Tuck, will my one dimple to Billie Louise Kerley so that she will have two.

I, Lindsay Tucker, will my love for Mr. Melton to Joe Nimer.

I, Phyllis Tucker, will my position as majorette to Phyllis Davis, and all my good times on band trips to Jay Wise.

I, "Libby" Tyson, do bequeath my ability to graduate to "Bill" Howard, and my good times to Betty Allen.

I, Marvin Upright, will my English teacher, Miss Gray, to H. C. Munday and Dot Crisco, hoping that she will teach them as much as she has taught me.

I, Doris Vickery, leave my good times at Cannon High to my sister, Rachel, and my ability to pass all my subjects to Bobby Goforth.

I, Nancy Wagoner, will my ability to have good times in high school to Helen Black, and my ability to graduate to Betty Watkins.

I, Charles "Pete" Walker, will and bequeath my ability to pass biology under Miss Lancaster to Winton Lowe.

I, Colleen Wall, do hereby will all the typing paper and shorthand pads to the people who took them, and hope they don't have to run around to find some at the last minute.

I, Hattie Wallace, will my monitor post in front of the office to Patsy Glass, and my ability not to get a man after chasing him four years to any freshman dumb enough to try it.

I, Joe Waller, will my ability to yell louder than anyone sitting around me to my brother, Bob, hoping he doesn't get slapped down.

I, Kathleen Waller, do bequeath my ability to pass my grades each year, without studying, and to finish high school in three years to Margaret Philyow.

I, Eugene Walter, do will and bequeath my courage to wear a necktie four years to anyone crazy enough to do it, and my ability to have more than one girl to H. C. Munday.

I, Mae Flowe Walters, leave my butterfly-rimmed glasses to Ray Clayton, knowing how much he likes them.

I, Elvy Washam, do hereby will and bequeath my blonde hair (not peroxided) to all the peroxides, when Kannapolis runs out of peroxide.

I, Howard Weast, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to thumb a ride to any baseball and football game I wanted to see to any adventurous fool who wishes to try it.

I, Leon Whitaker, will my ability to stay in the Junior class three years to Nat Gilliam, and my position on the football team to Charles Rabb. "It's the third seat from the left on the lower bench, Charlie."

I, Margie Wike, leave my "acute" personality to Dick Sweeney because he asked for it, and my socks to anyone who doesn't have sense enough to wear them in winter to keep warm.

I, Bobby Wilkerson, leave my place in D. O. to a rising senior who needs money.

I, Ann Westmoreland, do leave my chief-cheerleader position to "Pud" Oates, who can really turn flips and cartwheels.

I, Floyd Wilson, Jr., will my ability to graduate to Louise Sain.

I, Doris Wise, bequeath my ability to pass geometry to Faye Howard and my ability to control myself to Harold Slawson, who could but doesn't.

I, Cleada Wooten, hereby will my position in the cafeteria to Faye Howard.

We do hereby declare this document legal in every respect. It is the desire of the Senior Class that every wish stated in this document be carried out.

(Signed) HAZEL BOGGS, Lawyer

WHO'S WHO OF 1957

Last week, May 1957, the letter came. Our Alumni Day had been set for the first week in June. I could hardly wait; I was so excited. Ten years had passed since that fateful graduation and I had lost track of all those members of my graduating class. My mind began to scurry back and forth. I wondered what this person or that person was now doing. We had received our diplomas with a sense of grown-upness, so confident that we would go far as the leaders of our nation. How many of our dreams were fulfilled?

The day came and I almost jumped up and down with excitement as I prepared to leave my temporary office in Birmingham, Alabama. I am a doctor in China now, home on furlough, writing articles for The Commission.

About 12 hours later I arrived in Kannapolis. When I reached the old campus, familiar people came forth to meet me as we began our reunion.

The first I met was Peggy Cannon, outstanding in chemistry in high school. She is doing research work at Northwestern University. Recently Peggy was awarded a year's study in Paris for her internationally famous discovery, peridium, a new wonder drug.

President of the Alumni Day Meeting was Luther McCombs, now United States Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Mary Ruth Aldridge is secretary to Harold Barringer, the great movie producer, currently being acclaimed for his production of "Oh! You Kid," starring Nancy Blackburn and Earl Clayton.

Modeling clothes in Hazel Childers's elite establishment are Christine Bassett, Gwen Lambert, Doris Wise, Mildred Stewart, and Imogene Barker.

Headlining today's newspapers is the name of Margaret Ann Bradford, America's newest gift to the world of medicine, awarded the Nobel Prize of 1957 for her brilliant work in brain surgery.

Virgie Leebrick, Grayce Allman, Bill Coggins, T. C. Blevins, Hazel Boggs, Joyce Honeycutt, Hoke Kidd, Nathlee Long—all have settled down to married life—all, that is, except Nat and Hoke. They haven't exactly settled down. They're in joint partnership in a dress shop in Miami.

Charles Winecoff is directing his band, "The Swingsters," featuring Ellen Basinger, torch singer, who directs an all girl orchestra on the side; Jimmy Brown, clarinet soloist; Bobby Barnhardt, trombone star; and Bill Tevepaugh, who sends out "The sweetest music this side of Heaven," on his clarinet.

John Allen, radio announcer for Crispy Crackly Corn Flakes, is directing a new radio show with Lois Baker, Ernestine Bennett, Kathryn Bostian, Eugene Currie, Earl Childers, and Mary Frances Cameron.

Gwendolyn Callicutt is manager of a girls' basketball team on its way up to the top, with Betty Julian, Laura Cruse, Mary Lewis, Mae Shaver, and Mae Flowe Walters.

Billy Barnhardt is advertising manager for the New York Daily Times with Jinx Baker as his international correspondent.

Voigt Beaver now owns the Daily Independent. His "right hand" is Doris Dwyer, advertising manager, and Joe Gentle, sports editor.

J. L. Norris is now advancing Journalistic work by his latest book, Journalistic Views from Russia. He's a war correspondent, doing much to keep good will between nations by his book and newspaper articles.

Clifton Bishop is now Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. H. P. Cannon, Joseph Brown, Jacob Barnhardt, and Frank Ballard are new Supreme Court members recently appointed by President Eddie Ray Cooke.

Ruth Bowers is now the proud owner of a home for orphaned children. Working with her are Lois Petrea and Colleen Wall.

Directing music at Cannon High School is Romaine Brown.

Johnny Barnard has succeeded Sherman Billingsley as owner of The Stork Club in New York. Hansel Beam is captain of the staff of waiters.

Betty Lou Belcher is owner of a secretarial firm which supplies stenographers to big business firms in Detroit. Frances Bell is head of the long list of "Best Stenos in Town."

Doris Black is married to Clyde and they have gone to Kansas to live.

C. A. Boone is now commander of all U. S. Navy forces. Doris Bost is his secretary.

Iris Barnhardt has finished business school and is now chief buyer for Belk's Department Stores here in Kannapolis.

Elizabeth Beaver is teaching Home Economics at Appalachian State Teachers College.

Marie Bumgarner is married and living on a big plantation, directing a huge force of farm hands for her husband.

Norman Campbell is operating a salt mine in Colombia, South America. Franklin Cannon is his financial assistant.

Anna Carter, now married to Leroy Duggins, is Southwide Director of the Methodist Youth Fellowship.

Joe Carter has turned his hobby of making pictures into a profitable profession. He is Warner Brother's newest motion picture producer.

Ruth Carter is secretary to C. A. Cannon, president of Cannon Mills, Incorporated.

Charles Chambers is chief of Kannapolis City Police force.

Doris Clark is an interior decorator, having recently designed the new home of Cleatus Cline, superintendent of No. 4 Weave Room.

Carol Compton is the new "golden voice" of the Hour of Charm, directed by John Watson with the magic violin of Doris Wise.

Managing the new Stationery Factory in Milwaukee is Charles Corl.

Margaret Cook is dietitian of the S. & W. Cafeterias. Bill Crepps has bought this chain and now instead of the "Serve yourself and save" slogan, it's the "Serve yourself and save—us the trouble."

Jack Lear owns and manages the new "International Antique Art Gallery" in Philadelphia.

C. G. Lefler is a news writer for the Los Angeles Tribune. He is now in China, sending out daily "behind the news" broadcasts.

Curtis Lentz has developed a new method of orange growing. He owns his fruit plantation in Tallahassee, Florida.

Jane Ann Lentz is now secretary to Cleo Lloyd who has opened a "Cheerleading Training School" with Shorty Westmoreland as his chief teacher. Max Riddle is the star pupil. He has an offer of a job leading fans from New York if he can ever learn.

Lowell Lovin is bartender at "The Pink Elephant Saloon," on the sidewalks of New York.

Aileene Lowder is now married and has a very efficient home.

Iva Dell Lowder is bookkeeper for C. A. McCombs, president of Cabarrus Bank and Trust Company.

Adell Marshall is known for her famous candies, Melted Cheese, and Sugar Tidbits.

Foy McCarn is the new director of "The Arthur Murray Dancing School."

Earl McCombs is President of the Executive Council of National Honor Societies.

Betty McDaniel, Mildred Miller, Marie Pennell, are teaching school together at Salt Lake City, Utah.

Grace Rufty has recently been awarded a medal for breaking the typing speed record.

Ida Marie Scott is director of North Carolina Baptist Training Union with Norma Shoaf as her field worker.

Inez Nichols is designing clothes in the Carnegie Institute, the home of better clothes.

Bill Messer is the new "Bobby-sox" rage because of his version of "Night and Day."

Ottis Oliver owns a mink farm. Joe Overcash buys the fur and makes new coats which he sells at Betty Payne and Joann Benson's "Intrigue Shop."

WHO'S WHO OF 1957

Marie Orfield, Dorothy Rodden, Helen Phillips, and Maxine Shafer are joint-owners and operators of a fashionable beauty salon on Fifth Avenue.

Marietta Simms has written a book on "How to Eat and Grow Tall." This was recently published by the Sides Publishing Company of which Bill Sides is the president, and Herman Sides is the vice-president.

James Shuping is a famous illustrator for the Saturday Evening Post.

Marvin Sides is teaching a class on "Modern Love" in Cannon Institute of Technology which teaches the art of love-making.

Howard Sherrill is playing baseball with Delmar Wiles's "Wonder Team," which has Bill Wiles as manager.

Marjorie Wike has just appeared on the Medical News Broadcast explaining her new cure for rheumatism.

Wynne Whitley is manager of the new Swanee Theater.

Cleada Wooten is now secretary to Jack York, principal of J. W. Cannon High School.

Floyd Wilson is a flying instructor at an air base owned by Bobby Wilkerson and Billy Stirewalt.

Tommy Suther is gym instructor at Charlotte High School.

Donald Wagstaff has opened a new Picture Studio with Leon Whitaker as his assistant.

Margaret Sisk has opened a florist shop in Salisbury. In charge of importing the flowers are Mary Teal and Nancy Wagoner.

Joe Waller is the Commandant at Georgia Military Academy at College Park, Georgia.

Eugene Walters is the manager of Central Motor Lines.

Howard Weast has just invented a burglar-proof safe.

Lorraine Templeton is now Governor of North Carolina. Speaker of the House is A. T. Vaughn, and president of the Senate is Lindsay Tucker. Members of the Legislature are H. R. Sweat, Marvin Upright, and Charles W. Walker.

Doris Vickery is owner of the Mountaintop Playground Center in Asheville, N. C. Directing the children's section is Elizabeth Tyson.

W. M. Slawson has succeeded Red Skelton on the Comedy Hour.

Margaret Sloop has just opened a new dress shop. The clothes are all originals, designed by her.

Evelyn Smith is now Secretary to the Southern Baptist Convention.

Charles Sprye is a state highway patrolman in Kentucky.

Wallace Tuck and Fred Safrit have just been given a degree in law from the University of North Carolina.

James Roberts has taken Buck McCarn's place as football coach and history teacher at Cannon High. (McCarn has retired and is devoting all his time to building up his Midget Southern Railway System.)

Joann Roberts is the vocalist for the Westminster Choir in London. Orval Murray is writing all her solos.

Mary Frances Moore is married and teaching home economics in the University of Iowa.

Annelle Morris is an instructor at the Woman's College of North Carolina.

Helen Patterson, Elvy Washam, and Kathleen Waller are librarians at Cannon Memorial Y. M. C. A.

Phyllis Tucker, Betty Joan Safrit, and Doris Ann Phillips are running the "Teen-Timer Canteen" located on Cannon Boulevard.

Charles Pethel is an engineer of the streamlined Southerner.

Frances Roberts is clerk in the Pottery House in Concord.

Frances Litaker, Mildred Miller, Margaret Sechler, and Doris Phillips are nurses at the new hospital recently erected by H. L. Rollins.

Bobby Shinn has just published a new book of poems written by Warren Price.

Billy Riggs is in California operating a boarding home for beautiful girls alone.

Mary Peebles is manager of the Daily Independent. (Business manager, that is.)

Blondell Self is teaching first aid to volunteers who are leaving soon to do rehabilitation work in Italy.

Colleen Alexander and Hattie Wallace are still together; they are teaching at Northwestern University.

Doris Jean Thomas has erected an orphanage equipped for one hundred children on Lakeland Drive, Florida.

Marie Smith and Hazel Lambert are hostesses on the International Airlines.

Talbert Howell is a pilot on the Eastern Airlines.

Curtis Hoyle, Ernest Huffman, Jack Kelly, and Robert Lankford have started a co-op farm. They have a one-thousand acre farm with Ray Lapish in charge of the dairy.

Harold King is modeling! Yes, modeling! On the "before and after" medicine stickers, he poses for the "after."

Mary Hughes has just written another book of poems called Shadows of the Night.

Gwen Lambert is singing with the Andrew Sisters, since the oldest one of the group resigned.

Max Koontz, prominent lawyer from Chicago, also opened a firm of law offices with Peggie Rose Lambert as his accountant.

Mickey Kincaid and Bobby Jones are operating "The Soda Shop" popular hang-out of the high school crowd.

Bernell Jolley is interning at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore.

George Daniels has a chain of cleaning stores from Virginia to Florida.

Claude Davis is in Mexico studying art and Donald Davis is the owner of a huge restaurant in Kannapolis.

Kenneth Dayvault, the great athletic director of Cannon High's basketball team, now has been offered the position of coaching the Texas Aggies.

Rachel Dayvault's paintings are now on exhibition in London. She has risen also in music, having written a new hit, "Fantasy in C Minor."

Betty Deal, majorette back in 1947, is now running a beauty shop. Her assistant is Louise Gales.

Howard Dearmon owns the largest and most popular bowling alley in Sunrise Terrace, Florida.

Forest Dixon is now a successful business man. He owns a clothing store with Don and Thurlow Dwiggin.

Donald Efrid has followed in his father's footsteps. He is now a famous contractor.

Hazel Efrid is running a recreation center in Charlotte.

Ray Elliott has a professional ball team called "The Injuns."

Connie Faulkner, believe it or not, is a professor at Duke University.

Doris Fisher now owns a hat shop in Detroit, and Jimmy Fisher owns a huge garage and automobile factory which manufactures the Atomic Propelled Speed Demons.

Evelyn Foster and Doris Jean Knowles are producing the most beautiful handbags ever to be seen, so they say.

Dan Freeze is teaching math at the University of North Carolina.

Horace Fuller owns a rug factory with Johnny Gardener as his chief designer.

Jerry Gardner is studying to become a minister in New Orleans.

David Glass has taken his dad's place as pharmacist at Smith's Drug Store.

Sybil Goble and Margaret Jones are both women doctors in the Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem.

Mary Lois Goodnight keeps books for the president of the Cabarrus Bank and Trust Company, Robert Hager.

Harold Gray is teaching Spanish in J. W. Cannon High School.

Willie Hale is the famous bass soloist heard every Sunday afternoon on the "Opera Hour."

At last I had seen everyone, and that wonderful three days of talking over old times and meeting old friends will forever remain a happy memory.

This is a free country, and it's not for us to tell you how to spend your money. But when it comes to buying photographs, one or two things are worth remembering.

When you pay out money for photographs, it's comforting to know that if everything is not exactly as promised, you can go right back to where you spent your money and get complete satisfaction.

We don't advertise our prices; they are standard and everybody knows them. Just remember we can, and will, meet any reasonable offer.
